Re: Jana Chaloupkova, Diplomat

In addition to serving as Honorary Consul General, I am also a practicing attorney. My law practice involves an amount of international law transactions.

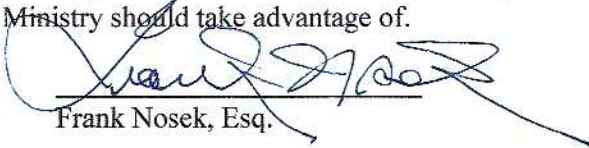

I have known Ms. Chaloupkova since my appointment as HC in 1998 when she was working at the MFAs, Consular Dept. in Prague and was in charge of Honorary Consuls nominations. I have followed her career ever since, and have been aided by her a number of times in various foreign countries where she has been posted.

Ms. Chaloupkova has done an excellent job of representing the interests of the Czech Republic with her extraordinary ability at public diplomacy; her judgment of diplomatic situations is thoughtful, precise, and thorough, and her ability to organize programs and events is masterful. Her skills are exactly those needed and which make her so respected and appreciated by the international community in each one of the many nations where she has served.

You are already aware of Ms. Chaloupkova's personal accomplishments as a highly educated scholar, a prolific published writer, and her wide range of language skills.

I very strongly recommend Ms. Chaloupkova for appointment to the highest level of diplomatic position available; she is a valuable talent which the Ministry should take advantage of.

Very truly yours,

Frank Nosek, Esq.
